

Festival Info

Getting Here / Accommodations

Where Are We?

- Fort Smith, NT (60°N, 112°W)
  - Thursday & Friday activities
- Wood Buffalo National Park (WBNP)
  - Saturday & Sunday activities

Distances for Getting Here

Driving<sup>1</sup> Kms: to Fort Smith from:

- ♦ Edmonton: 1,351
- ♦ Toronto 4,731
- ♦ Vancouver: 2,232
- ♦ Yellowknife: 783

Direct<sup>2</sup> Kms: to Fort Smith from:

- ♦ Edmonton: 725
- ♦ Vancouver: 1,396
- ♦ Saskatoon: 934
- ♦ Yellowknife: 303

<sup>1</sup> Google map distances

<sup>2</sup> As-the-raven-flies or Travelmath.com distances

Driving

Fort Smith has highway access via northern Alberta and from Edmonton there are two options;

#1: To Fort Smith via Slave Lake / Red Earth

Edmonton to Slave Lake: AB Hwy #44 / #2 (north)
Slave Lake to High Level: AB Hwy #88 (north) / #58 (west)
High Level to Enterprise: AB Hwy #35 (north) / NT Hwy #1
Enterprise to Fort Smith: NT Hwy #2 (north) / #5 (east)

#2: To Fort Smith via Valleyview / Peace River

Edmonton to Valleyview: AB Hwy #16 (west) / #43 (north)
Valley View to High Level: AB Hwy #49, #2 / #35 (north)
High Level to Enterprise: AB Hwy #35 (north) / NT Hwy #1
Enterprise to Fort Smith: NT Hwy #2 (north) / #5 (east)

Flying

Fort Smith is serviced by daily scheduled flights from Edmonton and Yellowknife (except Saturdays). The carrier, Northwestern Air Lease offers discount airfares for registered festival participants.

- www.nwal.ca or call (867) 872-2216

Accommodations

Fort Smith has 2 hotels and several B&Bs options for your accommodations.

As well, the Queen Elizabeth Territorial Park is a full amenity campground that is a few-minute drive from town center. There is also a paved walking trail from the campground to downtown (3.5 Km)

For more information about Festival rates for airfares and accommodations, contact us at:

info@tawbas.ca